SOLVING THE IMPOSSIBLE

Alan M. Schmook
Oklahoma

It is surprising what a small key it takes to unlock a lifetime of bondage. It was the spring of 1974, and I thought I had come to the end of my rope. All of my endeavors seemed to end in failure. I was continually haunted by my own insecurity...

It was at this time I made what I considered one of the hardest decisions I had ever faced. I believed my wife and I were supposed to go see my parents, more specifically my father.

My relationship with my father had never been good. We had both been raised under an erroneous application of the concept of "constructive criticism." The lack of openly displayed love and affection and a heritage of over expectation and criticism of under performance had been in our family for several generations. The criticism only fueled the insecurities in my life.

It all began in the early 1950's, when I was born the second son in a farming family from northwestern Oklahoma. My older brother exhibited excellent manners and good grades. Throughout my childhood my father had continually questioned why I couldn't be more like my brother. We both tested near genius level on an IQ test, yet he excelled as I kept failing. I would finish homework assignments, but I wouldn't turn them in for fear that I hadn't done as well as my older brother. This began a pattern of underachievement which plagued me for the next 20 some years.

All of my lifetime people who truly cared about me would try to figure out what was wrong with me. This led to exasperation on the part of my parents, teachers, counselors, doctors and myself. I never really knew what it was to be free.

I quit most of my jobs, because I thought that the boss was going to fire me at my first review. Years later I found out that some of my employers were so pleased with my work that they were planning to promote and didn't understand why I had quit.

In the fall of 1970, during my freshman year at college, I came home and attended a Lay Witness Mission in my home church. That Saturday evening I received Jesus

*Alan speaks at many

Alan not only studies and gives the Word, but is well-respected commercial real estate appraisal businessman and consultant.

Christ as my Lord and Savior. WOW, did I feel great! I was no longer afraid of dying and going to hell. My parents and sister also received Jesus the same weekend as I did. The following summer, my parents asked me if I had received the Holy Spirit. I didn't know what they were talking about, so they explained that it was just more of Jesus. I asked Jesus to baptize me with the Holy Spirit, and He did with the evidence of speaking in other tongues. This provided a new power to witness and confidence in my salvation. However, I still dealt regularly with the problems of insecurity which affected my academic career and my job performance.

My romantic life had never been great. I only dated one girl during high school, but then she discovered her "Mr. Right" and married him. My next girlfriend looked like my future wife, but for the second time I wasn't her "Mr. Right," either. I felt devastated. So, I quit dating. Actually, I did not quit liking girls. I was just afraid of making more mistakes and being hurt. But while I was not willing to date, I was not thrilled with being alone. I asked God to show me who He had chosen to be my mate, because I was not confident in my own decisions.

On July 15, 1972 I married more than the girl of my dreams. The Bible says God can do more than we can ask or imagine. I found this to be true when he supernaturally arranged my marriage to Patti. A brief excerpt of this fantastic portion of my life includes going on our first date two weeks after we became engaged.

I now know that Jesus paid the price for my total salvation (spiritually, emotionally, mentally, physically and financially). If I had known this in 1970 when I accepted Jesus Christ, I could have received my emotional and mental freedom then. Sadly, what you don't know can hurt you.

My father had received the key to unlock the bondage in my life while ministering to a friend of his who had two sons similar to my older brother and myself. Surprisingly, my father had realized that he was part of my problem. Dad simply said "Alan, you have been deceived. Forgive me." This was the first time I ever heard my father apologize to anyone. The impact of his repentance and my forgiveness destroyed the bondage that Satan had utilized to control my life for over 22 years.

The repentance of my father allowed God to destroy the power of the enemy over my life. However, I did not know how to be free. It's one thing to recover something that you have lost, but quite another to enjoy something you have never had. I knew that I needed to do something, so I began to do the things I had been afraid of or had failed at previously. In a matter of less than three years, I went from an entry position as a shoe store clerk to a store manager, overseeing several stores. It is neat to see what God can do when you will allow him to make the choices.

In the mid 1970's I joined FGBMFI, as it was a great place for business people to share their faith and encourage one another. Also, at about the same time, my wife and I started conducting summer youth camps for up to 250 youths from more than a dozen churches in four states. What an adventure! We did this for the next ten years. As we began to phase out of youth camp, I became involved in coordinating FGBMFI men's advances and conventions in our state. What a step from an insecure young man to leading business men's meetings!

I began my career as a commercial real estate consultant and appraiser in my father's company in 1976. During the first few years working with my father, we had our ups and downs. There were times I thought that he was a terrible boss, and I'm sure he thought I was a worthless employee. In 1985, I bought my father's remaining interest in Schmook Appraisal Company.

I have enjoyed the opportunity of building on the past reputation and strong foundation of my father in the real estate appraisal profession. Since 1985, the company has become known as a solver of unusual real estate problems. We are regularly sought out by major corporations, financial institutions, and government agencies to assist them in difficult real estate activities, which are many times "one-of-a-kind" facilities. Our expertise in solving unique valuation questions has caused many of our competitors to refer assignments to us. Today, Schmook Appraisal Company is recognized regionally for its expertise in valuing difficult commercial real estate properties.

The God given wisdom to solve difficult problems has not been reserved for only the real estate market. I have taught, mentored and trained public school students, business people, appraisers and FGBMFI leaders. God has allowed the revelatory gifts of the Holy Spirit to flow through my life and touch many individuals who seem to have problems with no answers.

I have had the opportunity to share my testimony with many FGBMFI chapters, churches, radio stations and on TBN's local Praise The Lord program. Each time, I

Alan and Patti Schmook.

I am amazed at the number of people who are having trouble with self-confidence and insecurity. As we pray, God sets them free.

The parts of my life where I had the greatest fears and failures growing up have now become areas of opportunity for God to work through me to help others. I was afraid of my next job review, and now I get to pray with people for more work, better jobs and promotions. WOW, isn't God great!

The Gabriel Jacquez Family

You Have To DO THE RIGHT THING!

Gabriel Jacquez, Visalia, California

In late 1984, I began playing “tag” with God. I was introduced to God’s salvation from a cousin, but I was in the world and out of the world, going back and forth.

My wife, Suzanne, was already a Christian. She was more spiritual than I was. She didn’t mess around; but I did. I didn’t have the Holy Spirit, but she did. Even though I was a “Christian” I had a very, very bad marriage. I used to abuse my wife, emotionally. After awhile, we could not get along with each other. I was also doing drugs and alcohol.

In 1988, we got to the point where we could not get along anymore at all. In July 1, 1988, I decided to move out of my house. I lived with my mom and just left my wife with the household.

However, I thought that maybe we could eventually work it out. At the beginning of January, 1989, I wanted to get rid of drugs and alcohol; and get back with my wife and kids. But just as I made that commitment to God, my wife called me and told me she wanted a divorce. I was astonished.

I argued, "What, a divorce? All these years that I have put you through and now that I wanted to get my act together, and start serving God, now you want a divorce?" But I had lied to my wife so many times. I had disappointed her so many times. She thought I was just giving a lot of "lip service."

Now that I want to get back together, she doesn't want me! I talked to God, "Lord, I want to get back with my wife." But my wife and I were so divided. We couldn't even talk to each other. I didn't want to go back to a wife and fight anymore. I wanted a new wife that would love me, like when I first got married.

So I started seeking the Lord. The Book of James tells us to rejoice when we go through trials. Now I see why I had to go through divorce, because God was dealing with me. He was purifying me. God was cleaning my inner spirit.

In the beginning of 1989, when my wife was out of town, I went to the house. I wanted to make the marriage work. I was going to write her a letter, leave it in her room, and let her know why she should take me back. After all, I was a changed man. I was going to put some scripture into my letter. I was there for about two hours; but all I could write was one sentence. I couldn't understand what was going on.

When I searched for the scriptures to use in the letter, I read where we can call "Abba, Father" or "Our Father" we have the same spirit that God has to raise men from the dead. Of all the times I've read the Gabriel Jacquez says, "God wants us to do the righteous thing."

DO THE RIGHT THING!

Bible, I had never seen that scripture before.

I started crying, "Abba, Father. Give me your Holy Spirit." The third time I said that, the anointing of the Holy Spirit came upon me. Literally, the "scales" came off of my eyes. God's Word became alive. I just couldn't get enough of God's Word. The Holy Spirit started speaking to my heart. I prayed to receive the fruits of the Spirit. The Lord showed me the fruits of the flesh that I had done; everything that I had ever did to my wife. I just repented and cried unto the Lord. He kept on showing me how awful I had been.

While receiving the Holy Spirit, I continued to cry and to weep. When I got my composure back, I wrote my wife a three-page letter in two minutes. God was showing me how much of a sinner I had been. I repented and repented. I've never been the same since!

Before I knew it, the drugs were gone. The alcohol was gone. Everything was removed from me. I was rejoicing. However, at that time, my wife was not ready to get back together. Yet, I promised God, "Whether or not You are going to give me my wife back, I am going to serve You with all of my heart, no matter what! I will be pure to You, until You release me." She had already filed the papers. You see, God was checking my heart. God wanted to know if I was going to give Him "lip service" like I always did.

Exactly one year after we separated, on July 1, 1989, I received a call from my wife. We met at the public library. At that time, she did not know that I had received the Holy Spirit. At that time, we couldn't even stand each other. When I started talking to her about the Holy Spirit, all of a sudden, our spirits were united as one. We were one.

From that day forward, my wife put all of my badness behind her. We started serving God as a husband and as a wife. I now have so much love for my wife, just like when I first met her. My wife also has a love for me, just like when we first got married. The Lord has blessed our marriage tremendously.

A couple of years later, our second son and soon our daughter came along. We now have three beautiful children that God has blessed us with: Emmanuel, James, and Gabriela.

The Lord continues to bless our marriage. Sure, we have ups and downs, but now that we have the same spirit, it is not the same anymore,

"Our business belongs to God. Everything we do, we submit it to God."

because we are united as one. The Holy Spirit gives to us a united marriage. God has done a genuine miracle in our marriage!

At about the same time as my miracle in my marriage, there were also a lot of things going on in my business. At that time, the company that I own now, I was just an employee. God has worked miracle after miracle. When He restored my marriage, God put it in my heart, also, that He was going to bless my business.

When I received the Holy Spirit, my whole life changed. I was drinking, partying, and doing all kinds of things. Even the profits of the company grew when I got filled with the Spirit. I give God the glory for changing our work. I would pray for the Holy Spirit to give me wisdom. The company was prospering like never before because of the Lord.

When you receive the Holy Spirit, God gives you wisdom and He makes you to become a good steward. I am working for the Lord now, and not for man. God started really blessing me in my job.

God put into my spirit that I was going to own my own business. I shared this with my wife. I prayed, "God, if You want me to own my business, You are going to have to open the doors. If You don't want me to have the business, You will have to close the doors.”

As I was trying to get a loan for a new business, the Holy Spirit talked to me, “Gabriel, didn’t you tell me that you wanted Me to open the doors to your new business? You are opening the doors yourself. I am not in it!” That’s when I knew it was not the proper time. I had to repent. I was not being honest with my bosses. The Holy Spirit told me that I had to go tell my bosses what I was doing. It was not right. I was going behind their backs.

The Lord told me, “You need to do the right thing. If you are going to serve Me, and you want Me to bless you, you have to be righteous; and you have to do the right thing.”

A couple of days later, I made an appointment with the two owners. We sat down and I explained to them, “I don’t have a whole lot of money. All I have is my experience.” This one owner was really strong-headed. I remember he got up out of his chair and he slammed his fist on the table. He got upset. I thought I was going to get fired. I thought to myself, “This is it!”

He told me, “Do you think we are going to let you go. The last five years this company has been doing tremendously, financially. We have never been able to give bonuses before. But you turned around this place. We are not going to let you go!” Boy, what a surprise and a relief. I fell back in my chair.

The Lord told me, “Be upfront and be honest with them.” I told them that the only way I would stay is if they would make me a partner. They said that they would. This was in June and July. I also told them that I needed an answer by the end of the year. I set a time limit.

We had a meeting where I told them I would settle for ten percent of the company, starting in November. However, they made me an equal one-third partner - 33 1/3%. I was in total shock.

Instead of settling for ten percent, God had bigger plans (33 1/3%). That was awesome. The Holy Spirit promised me, “I am going to continue blessing this company. All I am asking you is to be righteous; and to do the right thing.” Many businessmen can be persuaded to do non-ethical things. In 1999, one of the partners decided to get out of the business. Again, the Lord was there. In 2002, my second partner retired from the corporation. Now the corporation is making monthly payments to him.

My wife of nearly 25 years and I are so honored to own the business we own today. This business belongs to God. Everything we do, we submit it to God. All He wants me to do is to be a righteous man. He will continue to not only bless the business, but also blesses my family.

When God blesses you with a business, He wants you to be righteous. He wants you to do the right thing; and to get the pride out of the way. I am really excited with what God is doing in my life. When you serve God and you surrender to God, He is in control; and He just wants to bless His children.

Last year in November, I had an opportunity to go with a FGBMFI Fire Team to Honduras. The Lord opened up doors. We ministered from the prisoners to the generals of Honduras. We can never, ever put a limit on God; and how He can use us. But we have to be willing to...DO THE RIGHT THING! ■

JUST WANTING TO BELONG

COCHRANTON, PENNSYLVANIA

I was born in New Bethlehem, Pennsylvania on a small farm. I didn't get to play many sports because we were too busy on the farm.

In high school, the agriculture class told me they were going stag to the senior prom. I wanted to be “one of the guys” so I turned down a prom date, but said I would dance with her. When I showed up at the prom, the fellows all had dates and laughed at me. I went over to ask the girl to dance and she even turned me down.

In the Army, I tried to be one of the boys; which didn't work. After I came home from Vietnam, I married Dorothy DuPont and had two wonderful children, Steve and Michelle. I was an electrician in the Meadville area, being self-employed, American Legion and Fire Hall member, and social church-goer, but I wasn't happy. Even as a father I didn't really feel like I belonged. Suicidal thoughts had been on my mind at times. But raised in a good home (thanks to mom and dad) I knew that wasn't the answer!

I attended a small home meeting. The speaker gave testimony of being healed several times. The speaker then made a call that if I didn't know for sure I was going to heaven or not, to come forward. I responded. There were no flashing lights or thunder, but several days later I picked up a Bible and began to read. I had been a deacon, but I couldn't pray for people; and I hadn't been reading my Bible.

My life started to change in weeks. I found joy and excitement in life. People I had told off where I bought electrical supplies, I went back and apologized to them. A month or two later I had no more desire to drink. I just didn't want it anymore. When I went back to the Legion Bar or Fireball Bar, they didn't ask me if I wanted a beer, they asked me if I wanted a pop.

However, after six months, Christian people made me feel like a nobody again! They downgraded me by pointing fingers, "You're going to fail or fall!

No souls to your credit” or “You still have friends so you must not be witnessing hard enough.”

I wanted to please God. The pastor said he was awakened at night and had to preach a different sermon. My answer and favorite scripture was Romans 14:17...For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit because anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by MEN!

I received the Holy Spirit at a meeting I didn't want to go to, but did, anyway. The speaker answered all my questions like I was the only one there. Then I went forward, along with a couple of “nobodies.” I felt something, but I was watching my wife over with the main speaker. I said, “That's okay, maybe next time.” He said, “No, now!” So they grabbed hands, prayed in tongues and down I went. Never to be the same.

My ministry started then, just like Christ's ministry did when He was baptized by the Holy Spirit and fire fell from on high, His ministry started.

I was a residential troubleshooter, making seven dollars an hour less than the commercial men that couldn't troubleshoot; and God used me mightily! I led people to the Lord, prayed and saw people healed or encouraged. Once I was involved in the middle of a domestic dispute, but God gave me words that broke it up.

I was led to a FGBMFI meeting by my wife because she thought that would make me the man of God she wanted. I joined and soon spoke up at a business meeting where the president and vice-president were arguing. I told them I didn't think men of God should act that way; and if this was what was going to happen I didn't want to belong. I got that at home!

I was later asked to be president, then became a FGBMFI Field Representative. My wife was sure God had made a mistake. She was jealous and felt left out. At a World Convention, I was appointed a National Director.

She had prayed that would not happen. However, God told her I was a leader. She repented and went to the convention. I was very lonely at previous conventions because speakers shared how their wives backed them and helped them. I felt alone and almost that she was against me. She was at home feeling lonely and forgotten.

At this convention, God stopped us and told her to take out her checkbook and become a lifetime Ladies of the Fellowship member.

From a couple that went to church separately, couldn't even pray together, we have started to share as a couple. Men saw an anointing on her and asked her to come and share. We went on a Fire Team to England together.

We were "nobodies" that didn't know what a Fire Team did, but saw miracles take place. Men and women asking each other forgiveness and then hugging and crying, experiencing deliverance, healing and salvation. What power of God one can tap into when one comes together in unity. Also, the FGBMFI Chapters see that power when they come together in unity.

Christians get mad when we call ourselves “nobodies,” but my Bible says God takes the most unlikely nobody and uses them! My heart’s desire was to have my wife minister beside me, together. God answered my prayer.

My favorite bumper sticker is, “Live so the preacher won’t have to lie at your funeral.” Would you do that if you are a “nobody” and feel like you don’t belong? Ask

God to equip you for service. I got alone with God in a hideaway trailer in the middle of winter, with no food, water or heat. I repented and cried out to God for an answer because I thought I couldn’t go on. I was almost at a divorce situation, with no joy. After three hours of crying out to God, the weight lifted. I experienced a peace like liquid love flowing all over me. Joy and excitement were restored, never to be robbed again. God can give you that same help. You are somebody, not a nobody! ■

50th Anniversary

Shakarian discusses the dairy business.

The effectiveness of this policy is illustrated in the fact that in our Armenian church in Los Angeles, although all our church services except one are still conducted in the Armenian form of word-dropping, we still have the young people with our American friends who visit the church are always impressed with the fact there are just about as many boys and girls in the service as there are older men and women."

50th JUBILEE Anniversary

Demos Shakarian, fired with enthusiasm to win men to Christ, sponsored evangelistic meetings in tents and auditoriums. Encouraged by their response, he formed the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International and called its first meeting in a huge upstairs room of Clifton's Cafeteria in downtown Los Angeles in 1953.

Surely, with healing minister Oral Roberts as speaker, the place would be packed! That was what he thought.

However, only 21 men came, and Demos' great enthusiasm shrunk to the size of reality. Attendance at following meetings was equally disappointing, and after a year

Men still cry, "What must I do to be saved?" The Bible provides a clear answer.

6 Steps to Salvation

1. ACKNOWLEDGE

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." – Romans 3:23

"God be merciful to me a sinner." – Luke 18:13

2. REPENT

"Except ye repent, you shall all likewise perish." – Luke 13:3

"Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out." – Acts 3:19

3. CONFESS

"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." – 1 John 1:9

"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved." – Romans 10:9

4. FORSAKE

"Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the LORD...for He will abundantly pardon." – Isaiah 55:7

5. BELIEVE

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." – John 3:16

"He that believes and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believes not shall be damned." – Mark 16:16

6. RECEIVE

"He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." – John 1:11-12

WHY NOT MAKE YOUR ETERNAL DECISION NOW?

"Lord Jesus, I believe You died for my sins and I ask for Your forgiveness. I receive You now as my personal Savior and invite You to manage my life from this day forward. Amen."

Write us to tell of your decision. We'll send you a booklet, "Now That You've Received Christ."

YES! I have made my eternal decision. I have read the Six Steps to Salvation and have asked Jesus to be my personal Savior. Please send me the booklet "Now That You've Received Christ."

YOUR 3-STEP DIAGNOSIS FOR ETERNITY

(Check appropriate boxes)

STEP 1:

When I breathe my last, the next thing is:

- go to hell
- go to heaven.
- stay buried in the grave
- I have no idea.

STEP 2:

Here is what will probably happen:

- I'll spend eternity in hell.
- I'll spend eternity with Jesus in heaven.
- I'll be reincarnated as a "higher being"
- My relatives can visit my grave; I'll be there.
- I don't really know what will happen.

STEP 3: I'm sure because:

- I've led a sinful life
- I've trusted Jesus as my personal Savior
- I've gone to church all my life
- I support charities, even church
- I'm a good person.

TRES PASOS PARA DIAGNOSTICAR SU ETERNIDAD

(Marque el espacio apropiado)

1er PASO:

Cuando yo de mi ultimo aliento, lo que me acontecerá proxicamente es:

- ire al infierno
- ire al cielo
- seguire enterrado en la tumba
- no tengo idea.

2do PASO:

Esto es lo que probablemente sucedera:

- pasare la eternidad en el infierno.
- pasare la eternidad con Jesus en el cielo.
- me re-encarnare como un ser "mas elevado".
- mis parientes podran visitarme en mi tumba; ahi estare.
- no se exactamente que sucedera.

3er PASO:

Estoy seguro porque:

- lleve una vida pecaminosa
- yo he confiado en Jesus como mi salvador personal
- he asistido a la iglesia toda mi vida
- apoye a caridades y a la iglesia
- yo ayude a mi comunidad
- soy una buena persona
