THE KURT WARNER STORY

GOD'S APPOINTED MOMENT!

Nicaragua continues to go through one of their greatest political crisis since the revolution. After the televisions reported "$150 million stolen from the treasury by political leaders," Vangie and I arrived exactly at "GOD'S APPOINTED MOMENT!"

Normally, people would have been shot and killed. But not even one single shot was fired! However, the political and legal maneuvering was ferocious. We are seeing God's cleansing power as a result of the prayers of those one million Nicaraguans who have found their new faith, as a result of our Fire Teams. It was only 3 years ago that God gave me the seven prophecies that changed a nation and began our Fire Teams.

God clearly spoke to me four things: (1) Call the nation to repentance, (2) Do it on television, (3) "Whisper your desire and it shall be done", and (4) Later, have a "Great Outreach Rally" in the Great Plaza which can hold 250,000 people.

I was given the opportunity to speak on national television programs, calling for a healing in that nation. I prayed for hundreds of thousands of people over television.

Over 200 Chapter presidents gathered for an incredible time of praise, worship, prayer, commitment, unity, anointing and healing. It was their appointed moment! The Glory of God was manifested there.

God has an “appointed moment” for you to intervene and encourage that certain person, business, or country. I continue to pray for you and your appointed moments.

FIRST THINGS FIRST!

Kurt Warner
Super Bowl XXXIV and XXXVI QB, St. Louis Rams

“First things first, I’ve got to give the praise and glory to my Lord and Savior up above, thank you, Jesus!”

As I told that to the 80-plus million television viewers after our Super Bowl win on January 30, 2001, I realized that this was my chance to try to give back to God what He gave to me. I think that was a huge turning point in my life. There was no going back at that point. I had made the decision I wanted to make under fire; and now I had to hold myself accountable for it. And everyone out there was going to hold me accountable.

However, I wasn’t always that bold as a witness for Christ. I was raised in a religious home. My mom went to church every Sunday; and she drug me right along with her. I went to a religious school. I thought I was pretty good. My life was in order. I thought that as long as I made more good decisions than I made bad decisions; as long as I talked to the people that nobody else talked to, I'd give them the time of day and shared with them, I was doing all right. That's all I needed. God just wanted me to be a nice guy and make good decisions.

I was in high school at this time and the coach asked me to I switch from wide receiver to quarterback. I didn't like the position of QB at first, but I wanted to give it the old "college try". All of that was great until I got into an actual game. Practice is fine, but in the game, a bunch of guys came at me to try to kill me. It was not real appealing to me. I would leave the "pocket" and dance around to avoid the tackles. So my coach designed "Kill Kurt" drills to try to keep me in the pocket. I quickly learned how to stay in the pocket.

When I moved onto college, the slower my walk with God became. The less impact God had on my life. God was there if I ever needed him. I went to church every once in awhile when I felt if I needed a little "pick-me-up". It was at this time that I met my future "off-field coach" and wife, Brenda. She came right out and asked me if I had a relationship with Jesus. Yeah, when I needed Him, He was there. My thought was: 'Well, my faith is between me and God. We're fine.' But I saw that if I wanted to stay with her, I was going to at least look into this "relationship thing" with Jesus.

Brenda was like my old high school coach – she wanted me to stay "in the pocket", too. Whenever she was asking me those tough questions, I was always trying to change the subject. She put her own version of the "Kill Kurt" drill on me. She would sit me down and say, "Okay, we are going to talk about this." She was like saying to me, "I dare you to stay in the pocket and try to find the real answers to this?" I knew I could step up to this challenge. I would win it, just like I won on the football field. No problem. After all, I am very competitive.

I knew I had to make a choice. It was time to "buy into" this philosophy or I just would have to go my own way. I found a scripture in Ephesians, "By grace you have been saved, through faith, and this is not from yourselves, it is a gift from God. Not by works, so that no one can boast." Ouch. It spelled it out in black and white right there in the Bible. It is not about me. It's not about the choices I am making. It's not about how good a person I am. But this is a free gift from Jesus. It's about what He has done for me; not what I would do for Him. It was at that point where I decided to make that investment. I decided to turn my life over to Jesus. I decided to "buy into" His philosophy.

I decided I was going to step into Jesus's pocket. I was not going to be running around, trying to do it my way. But now it was going to be God's way.

I thought that the next day, I was going to run to the mirror, and I was going to be different. I was going to see a halo above my head. Something is going to be different. I've changed. I've given my life over to Jesus. So I ran to the mirror that next morning and – nothing. It was the same old me. I didn't look different. I didn't feel that much different. I thought, "Well, what's the deal here." I thought that I was not going to have to go through any struggles any more. It is going to be easy. Jesus is in control now and He is going to take care of everything.

Kurt Warner reaches out to many needy kids in the community through his foundation, FIRST THINGS FIRST.

Shortly after I decided to make this investment, I was hit with the most difficult thing I could ever imagine or that I have ever been through in my life. Brenda's parents were killed in a tornado. We had been dating for a long time. How does this happen now that Jesus is in control of my life? I thought it was going to be easy from here. But it was at that point that I realized that He does not guarantee that it is going to be easy. He does not guarantee that every pass I throw is going to be a touchdown. He does not guarantee that every time you drop back, you are not going to get hit. But He does guarantee that He is going to be there with you. As difficult as that situation was, it was at that time I realized that the easy part was asking Jesus to come in and accepting Him as the leader of my life. The hard part was going to be dealing with the pressure in the pocket.

I decided that was the key to my position, the key to playing QB, the key to being in God's pocket is how you handle the pressure. When you are a pocket passer, the one thing that is good and the one thing that is bad about that, is that everybody knows where you are going to be. They know you are not going to be moving out of the pocket. They know you are going to be standing back about eight yards; and your offensive line loves it. But the defensive line loves it, too. They know right where I am going to be. And right where they need to come after me.

FIRST THINGS FIRST!

To me, it is the same way as being a “pocket” Christian. I want people to know where I stand. In every situation when the blitz is coming, when it’s fourth down, when we have to score to win the game, I want people to know where I stand. I want Jesus to know where I stand, no matter what I am faced with in the pocket.

Here is what I do to have success in the pocket:

1. Preparation. You have to be ready before something happens. You have to be ready to respond. We constantly do pocket awareness drills in football. That is what we have to do in life. It is not always going to be a clean shot. Sometimes you are going to have to move around. The best way to be able to do that is to be prepared and aware. I know what Jesus wants me to do. I get into prayer every morning, “Jesus, show me what you want me to do in each situation.” I have to be ready for the attacks of the defense, attacks of the enemy. I spend hours and hours of time watching film and seeing how the defense is going to attack me. We have to do the same thing with the enemy in life.

2. You have to have trust and faith. The Bible says, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, lean not on your own understanding.” We have to trust the position that God puts us in. God is always there at the right time where I need Him to be. I can always trust Him.

3. The decisions that we make under the pressure. We know the pressure is going to come. It’s how I respond, when getting blitzed, that determines how successful I am going to be as a quarterback. Are you going to be able to make and to handle the decisions when the pressure is on to take you to the next level?

4. How we respond to being knocked down. After losing the Super Bowl in January, 2002, our coach spoke to us, “The important part is – where do we go from here?” Is that the end of the high times? Or are we going to grow and increase? Are we going to get better from this point?”

Once I step into the pocket and let people know where I stand, people expect me to respond to those tough situations. They are watching. Some want to see me fall. Some want to see me succeed. But they are watching.

Kurt and Brenda Warner and their four children at home.

And it all depends upon a few crucial decisions that you make. In the huddle, I could be hurting. I could have pain. But all it takes is a simple bit of encouragement or excitement to affect all the people that are in that huddle with me. In life, I've come to realize the same thing, all it takes is a good response to a negative situation.

I invite you to step into God's pocket. When I made that decision to accept Jesus, I knew from that point forward, that I had access to Jesus at anytime, and that nobody could ever take that away from me. (See page 30). I can take that with me forever. Nobody can ever take away my Super Bowl ring. I was the champion. Also, no one can ever take the statement away from me: Jesus is the Lord of my life!

Step into the pocket to gain the greatest victory you will ever gain in knowing, for the rest of your life, nobody can ever take that away from you!

THERE WAS A HOPE!

Alberto Antonio Pereira Vargas
Managua, Nicaragua

I came from a family of small resources with a Catholic background. During our civil war in 1980, my younger brother died, because another brother on my father's side planned for him to be killed. That made my heart to be very hurt with vengeance desires for 20 years.

In early days, I experienced a lot of economic darkness. The day that I graduated, I did not have a suit or a ring, or anything to eat. Nothing. My brother-in-law loaned me a suit. But I was always the best student. When I came back to my town in 1985 I pledged, "My sons will not suffer what I have gone through."

In 1992, my second son had cancer of the blood; and God healed him. When I got to the hospital to pick up my son because he was going to die, my wife asked me to pray. I told her, "How can I do that? I never thought that God was going to hear me." For the very first time, I got down on my knees and I asked God that my son would get healed. My son was healed at that very moment! Yet, at that time, I didn't think it was because of my prayers.

I did not believe much in God, so my alcohol and womanizing continued. In 1995, my wife found out about my infidelity. My home and marriage were in shambles. I remember that I wanted to get out of alcoholism, but I could not. I started selling a few cars right there on the streets of Managua. During this time, a man invited me to a men's fellowship meeting.

I thought the Fellowship was only for the people who were walking straight in Christ, but not me. I got to the meeting drunk. In fact, I do not remember the first meeting. But something happened. That night they prayed for me. I do not know why, but the next Thursday the meeting was being held, I was at the meeting without anyone inviting me. From that day on, I have never failed. I could see a hope.

My home was already broken. I was almost bankrupt. But at the Fellowship meeting, there was a hope. Every man in that meeting and I became real friends. My heart started feeling more and more loved, little-by-little. But because of how I treated my wife, she was very, very hurt. My wife had already made the decision to separate. I asked my priest what I should do? He said, "You guys cannot be together any more." That hurt me very much, because he was my spiritual guide.

I came to Managua at one o'clock on Sunday morning October 26. With Humberto Arguello, (head of Nicaragua FGBMFI) we prayed. He said, "Go to your home in Managua and talk to Jesus." I got to that room and I talked to God, "Jesus, if you are real, show me that you are real. I need the strength to not make any mistakes. I will give you my wife, my children, and my life." All the lights were turned out; and I was crying. I suddenly felt that Jesus was hugging me. I felt a genuine love. I felt that He had lifted me up. He told me, "I will be with you always."

THERE WAS A HOPE!

From that very day and encounter with Jesus, my life is changed with Jesus forever. Through the Word of God, God revealed and He said, "With this you should be concerned; and the mountains and the valleys would cross in front of you. What He unites, nobody can de-unite." My wife returned with my sons. We went to our church. We all knelt, praying in unity. We prayed, "Lord, give us a new chance. Give us a new opportunity; as You are over this marriage." We started all over again. It has been four years ago. We are very united in everything we do.

Then my economic situation began to turn around. This businessman told me that I had to sow seed. I had never given ten cordovas (Nicaraguan money exchange). I started giving 50 cordovas, 1,000 cordovas, $100, $200, $1,000 – and I thought in my heart, "How is this possible that I am doing this?" But I saw that we were growing and growing. We bought the house in which we were living. Then we bought another piece of land; and I kept sowing. In the year 2,000, I came to the FGBMFI World Convention with my wife. When they called for men to sow a big amount into the ministry, I did not want to go to the front. I was afraid. I just gave what I could give – $1,500. As soon as I got home, the Lord gave me a $5,000 transaction!

At the 2001 FGBMFI World Convention in Orlando, when Bruno Caamano asked for eight men to go up and to sow a large seed. I got up and ran to the front. He said, "You are number eight; and there is no more." I was very happy. But when Bruno said, "The Lord is saying to sow $10,000," I said, "Oh, I can't. I can give $1,000." He said, "No, $10,000." I said, "Okay, I am going to give." But by December I had not sent a single dollar. I remembered my commitment of $10,000. I said to myself, "Okay, Lord, I need $3,400 more. But I want to trust in You. I told my son, "Son, you are going to see the glory of God," so I sent the first $1,000. It is easy to give what you have left, but not what you do not have! I got into my car; and a man called me on my cell phone. He said, "I am waiting for you. How many minutes will it take you to get here?" I got to the house. I had a car that I was trying to sell for $10,000. The man said, "I don't know what this is worth, but I am going to give you this." He gave me $13,500!!

God keeps blessing my business!

I had to move from the place where I was selling my cars. I asked God, "What shall I do? Where am I going to sell cars?" I went to my room with my wife and we prayed. They told me to be out of that place in 72 hours. They called me and told me they were going to relocate. Yet, they gave me a piece of land three times bigger. Today, we have the whole piece of land fenced with a roof, offices, air-conditioning, 3-4 times more cars, etc., everything. Also, the brother that I was bitter against, I went and asked him for forgiveness. And we now love each other.

God has blessed us. We are very happy. My wife and I are one! We have shared our testimony in many countries with the revival teams, sharing the greatness of Jesus and the restoring of my life, marriage and family.

On that night when I received the Holy Spirit, there was a total change. The Fellowship was the vehicle God used to bring me to Christ, repair my marriage and to get me out of the LOVE of money. I now have the Holy Spirit within me. I love the Fellowship. My four boys and one girl also love the Fellowship and Jesus. We are very blessed! There is a "blessed hope" for you!

Alberto Pereira is presently the treasurer of the first FGBMFI Chapter in Nicaragua. ■

SERVING IN GOD'S ARMY!

Joe Henry Ortega, Kingwood, Texas

Coming from a family of migrant workers, I grew up fast and took responsibilities to make a living. Now I work with one of the corporate companies that are now in the "Information Age" where communication is transmitted and network at a high speed for business to stay ahead on the cutting edge. That success involves having the world's fastest business jets, with mach speed and high altitude, but fuel-efficient. Aviation is a beautiful life, but very demanding. It's got to be right, with no room for error.

After 20 years of flying and maintaining aircrafts and 40 years of searching, wandering, partying, dancing, drag-racing, adventuring, hunting, water sports and trying to fill an empty spot in my heart, God changed my life! Now I am now able to serve as a man and a soldier—not in the Boy Scouts or the U.S. Army—but in God's Army!

I have always been a soldier at heart. I trained hard to learn everything about combat, weapons, and survival training. I held a first degree Black Belt in karate, TaeKwonDo, and ningitsu; but it was for all the wrong side and wrong enemy...it was of no use in civilian life.

My wife had gone on a retreat through our El Paso, Texas church. She came home and exclaimed, "I've found another love. His name is Jesus!" The Holy Spirit spoke through her and said to me, "Seek the Lord while you can find him. Call upon Him now while He is near." (Isaiah 55:6). She said, "I know where I am going and I'm following Jesus. Do you know Him?"

I started to think that maybe Jesus was the answer to the empty spot in my heart.

We started going to a prayer group and Bible study in our church. Half-way through a "Life in the Spirit” seminar, my wife continued to pray for me every night...and the Lord moved.

On April 18, 1985, Thursday noon on Flight 302 at 35,000 feet, going back to El Paso, I was looking out the window as I always had for the past 20 years, admiring heaven and earth the Lord created. All of a sudden, I was touched by the Holy Spirit. He made me realize that Jesus had been knocking on the window all that time. I felt the power of the Holy Spirit consume me in His presence from head to toe. My heart was pounding. In my mind, I had a flashback of my life; also, all the teachings that were said in the prayer group and Bible study were arranged in a way to acknowledge the reality of Jesus Christ. I prayed a repenting prayer not taught in the mind, but from the heart to the Lord to forgive the sins of my whole life.

When I finished praying, I asked Him to show me a sign. The Lord is very humorous, as I saw out the window what I thought were white clouds. They looked gray compared to the white top mountain I saw at the horizon. Then I said, “Lord, I’m yours to do whatever and to serve you. But you are going to teach me and guide me in all that I do for you.” All this time, I was in tears, trying to compose myself because I was a “macho man”. But His presence was so powerful that I kept humbling myself and thanking Him for coming into my heart as Savior and Lord.

I arrived home and shared what had happened with my wife. I went to church that next Sunday and heard the Gospel. It was so alive and personal. I went back to the seminar to give my testimony. They laid hands on me to receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, with the evidence of speaking in tongues, but only one word came out. Every night for the next few weeks, I kept saying that one word.

One night at the prayer group, the Lord used the leader to say, "I remember when they laid hands on me and nothing happened until three weeks later. I was praying and a flow came from within of praises in the gift of tongues. So those of you here, do not be discouraged, keep on praying—trust in the Lord." Two weeks later a sentence came out, then a paragraph, and finally singing the everlasting flow from within the well, praising in the Spirit to the Lord Jesus Christ.

In the desert, like Moses, the Lord taught me His Word and His promises; telling me to start using them in my daily walk with Him. Through fellowship, schools, work shops, seminars and conventions, we started to learn about healing, deliverance, evangelizing, miracles, signs and wonders by applying the Word, walking by faith and being a yielded vessel for the Holy Spirit's anointing.

This "soldier" has learned to put on the armor of God, pray, and how to take His weapons to do spiritual warfare against the real enemy every day, according to Ephesians 6:10-18 and Mark 16:15-18. I am now a born again,

Delivered From FEAR!

Koen Van Neste, Belgium

“Okay, I’ll go!”

Our persistent accountant had asked me to go to a businessmen’s meeting. Just to please him, I agreed to go. But I was fearful.

My brother and I had started a second optometry business. When our accountant came to our living room, he saw pictures of the Last Supper. He said, “Oh, that’s nice. It’s a nice work of art.” I replied, “We got it on our honeymoon.” But he started to talk about the Lord working in his life. Actually, he was a member of the FGBMFI, so he invited us to a FGBMFI meeting in 1987.

Why in the world did I need to go to a Christian businessmen’s meeting? After all, I was raised in a traditional Catholic family. As a little child, God was a reality. We prayed before sleeping. Even when there was a need, my parents told me I should pray for that. But as a youth, I was afraid of everybody. I was also afraid of God. I had a terrible fear to even look in people’s eyes. I was afraid to go to sleep. I was even afraid to stand up.

I used to go out with other friends to eat, drink and party until 3 or 4 o’clock in the morning. So, when I heard something about a dinner, I said “Okay, it sounds good.” But it was more to please my accountant.

When we arrived at the meeting, there was a brother in Christ who welcomed us and another said he was healed for over 12 years. His wife greeted my wife. She said, “Sir, you don’t have to worry about your daddy. The doctor will heal your daddy.” At that moment, my father was having major heart trouble. I was also fearful of my dad’s situation. He is still alive today and in good health.

We went into that dinner. I thought they were all crazy. I said to my wife, "Look at him, look at him, look at him, what's going on here?" But I saw something else. It was a joy in the brothers' eyes. I said, "That is something I do not have!" Although I was laughing with them, I saw that they had something that I did not have. That was the only thing that permitted me to come back for another meeting. I wanted to find out what they had.

I saw a joy in their eyes. I wanted to find out what was the meaning of that joy. I asked my accountant, "What's happening there?" He didn't say a lot about it except, "Just come back and you will find out."

At my third or fourth meeting, someone testified. It was just as if he repeated my entire life. He talked about the same fears I had. He talked about the same solutions he sought to get out of that fear. I reflected, "If he got out of that fear, I can maybe also get out of it!" He gave an altar call. I was the first to go forward and to say, "Lord, here I am!"

When I got saved, my fear did not leave immediately. But I experienced a joy that I had never known before. I remember people saying to me, "Koen, what's happening with you? You are all the time laughing. Can't you be serious for a moment?"

About 2-3 months later, I was Koen Van Neste and his wife, Greet, worship God during the annual FGBMFI World Convention.

Delivered From FEAR!

in a big FGBMFI meeting in 1988. During the praise, I had the privilege to hear for the first time in my life the voice of the Lord. He said, "Koen, You know I did it for you, also. I did it for you, also!" The month before, my wife Greet also accepted Jesus into her heart.

In France, the Lord delivered from all of that fear of the past years. It was as if a heavy weight was lifted off me. The Lord has done so many magnificent things. Now I know that fear is of the devil. The Lord has completely delivered me. Instantly, when I arrived home, my wife saw it. She said, "You've changed. What happened to you?" That fear never came back.

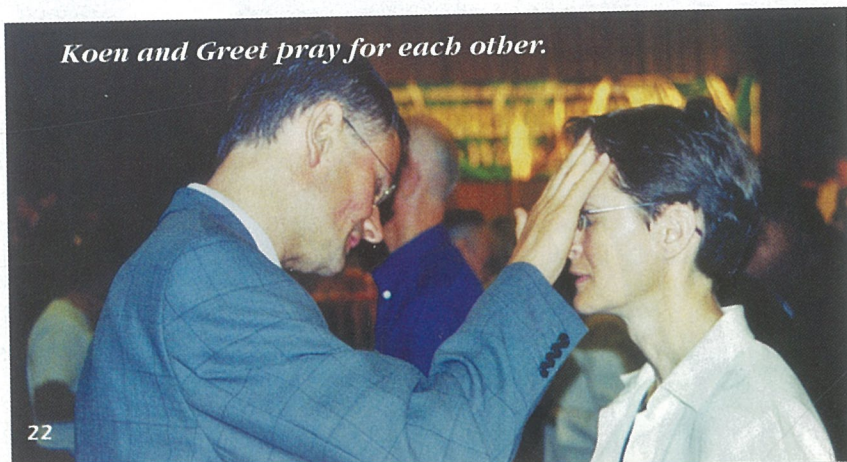

I became full of the Spirit. I've seen the Lord enter every part of my life. My relationship with Greet is getting better and better and better. I've had days that it was difficult to find time to serve the Lord, to look and to read in the Word of God. But now I know that I know that I know that it is the most important time of every day.

I have the privilege to be with people who are full of the Holy Spirit who encourage us at FGBMFI. Also, the recent visit of our International FGBMFI President was a real blessing, explaining the vision so that we all have a love for that vision the Demos had.

We've have seen a lot of the hand of the Lord in our business. My brother is a Christian also. It is a real, blessing to have "a new manager" in our business...the Lord, Himself. We pray for people in our business. Normally in Koen and Greet pray for each other.

During the 2002 FGBMFI World Convention, Koen washes the feet of another dear brother, as the anointing of God was much in evidence.

Europe, the optic business is going down and down, but we praise the Lord because our business is going up and up.

My task as a leader in the FGBMFI is a true testimony. At first, when they asked me to be a candidate for the election for president, I at first did not want to do that. I said, "This task is too big for me." I am not able to do that. But the Lord showed me through scriptures that I really have to be prepared and able to say, "Yes." All the glory to Him, but He does it. My real desire is that the Gospel may be known to the ten million people of Belgium. I have been crying, in prayer on my knees, because a lot of people in Belgium think they have everything. Belgium is a rich country, materially, but a lot of people are crying inside. They do not know what they are looking for. I feel there are opening doors for His work.

There is a revival spirit in the air. There are new chapters starting in Belgium. There is a lot of work to do. We know that the traditional way of doing things will not be enough. We have a vision for a chapter, or more than one, in every big town in Belgium.

Now the Lord gives me joy. He is with me all day and night. I give my personal testimony about me being afraid to talk. Now they say, "I cannot stop talking!"

Koen and his wife, Greet, have four children, ages 9-18. He is the National FGBMFI President of the country of Belgium. ■

JUST TELL ME THE TRUTH!

Larry DeNofio - Providence, Rhode Island

“Lord, I do not understand what is going on here. Just tell me the truth! That’s all I am asking for, is the truth!”

I was desperate. I had to know that Jesus was real. The first thing I saw in my mind was what I saw as a little boy—the fires of hell again!

I went to parochial schools all my life. The first encounter that I ever had with Jesus Christ was as a young boy of ten years old; and I can still remember it to this day. We had confessions in our church, where if you committed a sin, you would go to the priest and give your confession.

I can remember a nun who said something to me in early school. It must have been in the second or third grade, where she talked about hell; and scared the living daylights out of me. Every time I went to confession, I had that fear of hell.

After saying my prayers once as a little kid, I remember telling God, “I tried to tell you I am sorry because I loved you, but I don’t even know who you are. I see my mother and my father do things for me. I know they love me because they do things for me. I've never seen You do anything?"

From that point on, my whole life fell apart. It wasn't long after that my father left home; which devastated me. By the time my parents had been divorced for seven years, I came home from school and my father's car was in the driveway. It puzzled me, but I went in the house and I saw that my father was sitting on the couch with the mother. They said, "We've got something to tell you. Your mother and I are getting back together again." He never knew that I prayed about that situation. I never put two-and-two together that it was God; but they got together again.

I came back to Rhode Island for a friend's wedding. I remember at the end of the wedding when they threw the bouquet and the garter. I caught the garter and this woman caught the bouquet. We ended up getting married.

We started having a lot of tough problems in our marriage. It was at this time that my little Italian aunt, who had never made it past the ninth grade, began calling me. She told about this "born again" experience and about Jesus. I reasoned, "Here's a woman who doesn't even have a ninth grade education; and she is trying to tell me." I had philosophy and theology. I had it all.

I hadn't thought about God in years. I had put him totally out of my mind. A strange thing started to happen. I started thinking about those Bible stories the nuns used to teach me as a little kid. My aunt would call me up every single Sunday in the middle of the New York Giants football game. It used to drive me crazy, because I was an avid Giants fan. She would go on and on about this Jesus. I would just hold the phone out from me when she talked. About every five minutes I would come back and say, "Yes, Ma'am."

She took my wife and I to a Full Gospel meeting. I listened to how these guys had a relationship with Jesus, how they talked to Him, and He talked with them. I had never heard of anything like that before.

I thought to myself, "Wouldn't that be something if those miracles were real." Our marriage was really on the rocks, but we thought that maybe by having children, it might help the marriage. We tried to have children. It was not just happening. My wife and I went for tests. The doctor told me wife, "The chances of you getting pregnant are 900 to 1." Then he looked at me and said, "And you aren't so hot either, brother." In my heart I said, "There goes the marriage."

My wife Frances went to this breakfast with my aunt. A woman got up in the middle of the meeting. She did not know my wife or anything about us. She started walking back and forth in front of the table and said, "There is a woman in here that God wants to heal of feminine problems." My wife looked at my aunt, "What do you do if that is you?" My aunt said, "Well, we'll go forward afterwards and just let the men pray for you, that's all. We'll see what happens. You see what God does."

They prayed for her and that was it. She came home and told me about it. I said, "Oh, don't believe in that stuff. It's a lot of nonsense." But in the back of my mind I said, "Wouldn't that be something if that was real?"

I came home from work one day. My wife was sitting on the couch and had this look on her face that I had never seen before. I asked, "Why are you looking at me like that?" She said, "You've got to sit down. I've got something to tell you! I went to the doctors today for my physical. I don't know how to tell you this, but I am pregnant!"

The doctor explained, "This must be your 900:1 shot; don't ever expect it to happen again." The first thing I thought about was that breakfast meeting. But you try to believe these things, and you wonder if it is real or not. We had a baby girl.

After this happened, I started to go to some of these meetings and listen to these guys. They continued to talk about how Jesus was real and He did this and that for them. I was really struggled in my mind to believe this. I got on my knees and I said, "Lord, I do not understand what is going on here? Just tell me the truth! That's all I am asking for, is the truth!"

I honestly thought that God was going to kill that baby because I could not believe that it was a miracle. All night long I tossed and turned. The first thing I did the next morning was I jumped up and ran into my daughter's bedroom and I shook her. She jumped and started to cry. My wife said, "What's going on?" I said, "Nothing honey, everything is all right." She went back to sleep; and I went to work.

I never said a word to anybody about that prayer that I had prayed. Again, my wife was sitting on the coach with that funny look on her face, again! I looked at her and said, "Why are you looking at me like that?" "You had better sit down, I've got something to tell you. I don't know how to tell you this, but the doctor says I am pregnant again." I jumped up off the coach and I started swearing. "Get that quack on the phone. He doesn't know what he is talking about." And, just like that, I remembered the prayer that I had prayed.

Instantly, I knew that instead of killing my first baby because I could not believe it was from God, He gave me another baby to prove that it was God. That day, I gave my life to Jesus Christ! I just said, "Okay, Lord, I give you the rest of my life, whatever you want me to do, whatever you have me to do, I'll do it!"

My whole life has drastically changed. I've seen God do unbelievable things. The birth of our children and Holy Spirit has brought my wife and I back together. It is the Enemy that tries to divide us; and we are closer now than we have ever been in our lives.

FGBMFI was the tool that God used to bring salvation and healing to our marriage. I've never been the same since.

Larry DeNofio and his wife Frances live in East Greenwich, Rhode Island. He is a Customer Service Technician for Southern Union Gas Company, which just bought out Providence Gas Company; employed for over 23 years. He is the FGBMFI Director for the State of Rhode Island.

4. FORSAKE

"Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD...for He will abundantly pardon." – Isaiah 55:7

5. BELIEVE

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." – John 3:16

"He that believes and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believes not shall be damned." – Mark 16:16

6. RECEIVE

"He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." – John 1:11-12

YOUR 3-STEP DIAGNOSIS FOR ETERNITY

(Check appropriate boxes)

STEP 1:

When I breathe my last, the next thing is:

- go to hell
- go to heaven.
- stay buried in the grave
- I have no idea.

STEP 2:

Here is what will probably happen:

- I'll spend eternity in hell.
- I'll spend eternity with Jesus in heaven.
- I'll be reincarnated as a "higher being"
- My relatives can visit my grave; I'll be there.
- I don't really know what will happen.

STEP 3: I'm sure because:

- I've led a sinful life
- I've trusted Jesus as my personal Savior
- I've gone to church all my life
- I support charities, even church
- I'm a good person.

TRES PASOS PARA DIAGNOSTICAR SU ETERNIDAD

(Marque el espacio apropiado)

1er PASO:

Cuando yo de mi ultimo aliento, lo que me acontecerá proxíximamente es:

- ire al infierno
- ire al cielo
- seguire enterrado en la tumba
- no tengo idea.

2do PASO:

Esto es lo que provablemente sucedera:

- pasare la eternidad en el infierno.
- pasare la eternidad con Jesus en el cielo.
- me re-encarnare como un ser "mas elevado".
- mis parientes podran visitarme en mi tumba; ahí estare.
- no se exactamente que sucedera.

3er PASO:

Estoy seguro porque:

- lleve una vida pecaminosa
- yo he confiado en Jesus como mi salvador personal
- he asistido a la iglesia toda mi vida
- apoye a caridades y a la iglesia
- yo ayude a mi comunidad
- soy una buena persona
