NEW CHAPTERS STARTED IN NEPAL

David Schultz, Oregon FGBMFI Lifetime Member

In the Spring of 1983 at the Pacific Northwest Convention of the FGBMFI, at a breakfast prayer meeting, the Lord gave me a vision for that part of the world between India and China - including the country of Nepal. God showed me the Himalaya mountain range with the serpent coiled all around and through the range. The Lord spoke to me very distinctly, saying, "It is time to crush his head," I was a baby Christian at the time, freshly baptized in the Holy Spirit (at a FGBMFI meeting), newly married and on fire for Jesus -- a Jesus, who had truly changed my life from one of losing all that I had to one of abundance in Him. I was ready to go jump on a plane and go, but God had a lot better plan for me and would not let me go until Mary Ann, my wife, and I were ready.

The time came to start a FGBMFI Chapter in Nepal. It was not until the trip in December 2002 that my friend, Rajendra Sundas, became very insistent that the Lord wanted him and his friends to start a FGBMFI Chapter in Kathmandu. He wrote to me several times in early 2003 reminding me to bring the materials and books needed to start a Chapter. In September 2003, the Lord opened the door once again and I traveled to Nepal to work with my Nepali family. I took along a number of copies of "The Happiest People on Earth" and "Under His Banner" and a small supply of Voice magazines. The fellows simply devoured them! They were so excited; it was wonderful to see. About twelve men attended an organizational meeting. Five new members joined the Fellowship and of the five members four were elected officers in the Chapter, the fifth member is to fill in as needed.

The newly formed Chapter located in the Boudha District held its first regular meeting with about 23 men present; about eight or ten of whom were unsaved businessmen who had been invited by the members. The Holy Spirit touched everyone. It was a great time in the Lord and a blessed "first" meeting. The President gave a welcoming talk and did a splendid job of sharing Demos' vision that started FGBMFI on its way. Three of the men shared great, short testimonies about how Jesus had made miraculous changes in their lives. I gave a short testimony of how God had healed me at a FGBMFI meeting. The meeting closed in prayer for healings and salvations.

The next day, the day before I had to leave for the States, we had a business meeting, making changes to the meeting agenda and getting several items in order for future meetings. Once again, it was a great time of fellowship and prayer.

The second Chapter has started already. The President of the Kathmandu Chapter is now in the process of forming a third Chapter at Jawalakhel, on the West side of Kathmandu.

The meetings are going well, needs are being met and God is using FGBMFI to reach business men in Nepal for His glory! ■

The Only Race That Matters

Mary Fallin,
Lieutenant Governor, Oklahoma

I HAD ALWAYS CONSIDERED MYSELF TO BE AN “IN-CONTROL PERSON” AND “IN CHARGE” OF MANY ASPECTS OF LIFE.

I had worked for years climbing the ladder of success and was use to solving problems for about anyone who would ask. That was why I loved my new role as Lieutenant Governor of the State of Oklahoma. I love to help people and found it very rewarding to make things happen.

But then I learned through life's trials and tribulations that I am not in charge or in control, especially of other people. I can certainly do my part as God would have me to do it, but He has given all of us “free will” to choose the direction of our lives, with God or apart from God. I can tell you without God, life is difficult and we will never have all He desires for us, which is only for our good.

I grew up in the small town of Tecumseh, Oklahoma, part of a very middle class family, attended church, graduated from Oklahoma State University, married in a church and began my own family.

★ ★ ★ The Only Race That Matters

I volunteered in the community and went to church when it was convenient, especially on the holidays. To me, life was good. I had a great job, but then became interested in several issues being debated at the State Capitol. So I decided to run for office and do something about those issues. I announced to all my friends and relatives at a Christmas party that I was running for the Oklahoma legislature. Some were excited and some were skeptical.

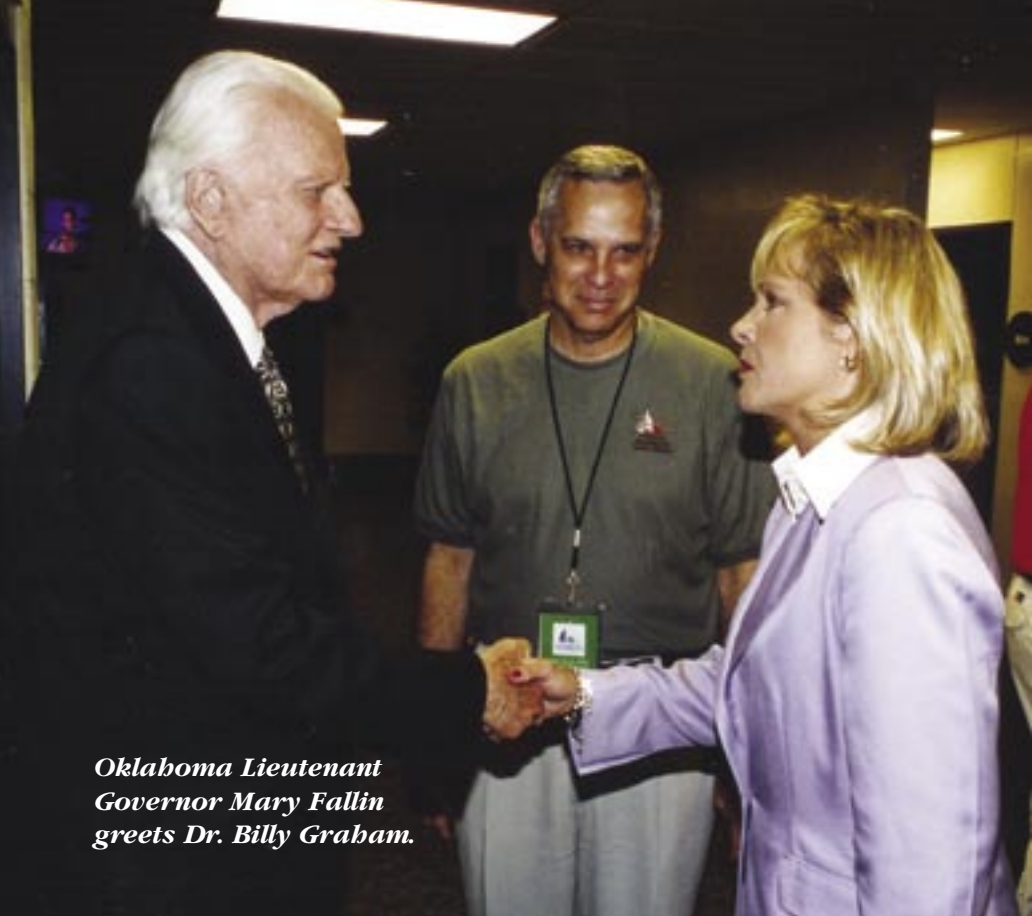

At the time I had a good job and would have to campaign nights and weekends. Working was not an option in my marriage so I wanted to do something that would make a difference. I had a three-year-old daughter at the time. The next month in January, I began my campaign. I was at a charity event and met a lobbyist. He asked me if I was the woman running for the legislature. I said, "Yes." He then asked if I was "pro-life or pro choice?" I hadn't really thought too much about it but I quickly responded, "Pro-life." He said, "Well, you are young and you might want to have more children. What would happen if you were to get pregnant during your campaign, you'd have to have an abortion, or no one would vote for you and you would be ineffective pregnant".

It took me a back for a moment but I replied, "Well, if I should get pregnant while running for office I would just keep running and have my baby. I would never abort my child because it is inconvenient." He said, "Well, you need to rethink your position."

I was eight months out from the primary election when I kept getting the flu. I went to the doctor and told him I needed some medicine. He said, "What are your symptoms?" I said, "I am sore, tired and sick in the mornings." He said I should be over it in eight months. I told him it couldn't be, I had an election in seven months. Then I figured out he was saying -- I was pregnant!

What the lobbyist had discussed with me had come to pass. I had a tough decision to make. Not whether to abort my child but whether to continue on with the intense desire in my heart or give up my dream. After much prayer, I decided to do both. Election night came and I was eight months pregnant and when I won the general election I had a one and a half month old baby and a three-year-old daughter. Four years later I went on to win the Lt. Governor's office as the first women and Republican ever in the history of Oklahoma.

It is always interesting how we can assume life is better for someone else other than ourselves. But in reality, I have found we all face many common issues in life. I am no different.

Even though I had a good life, and it certainly looked good from the outside; the highest elected and first woman in the history to hold this office, beautiful family, popularity, nice salary and perks, lots of awards and accolades - with all of this, my life on the inside was falling apart.

What people didn't see were all the things working against me. In a three year period, which hit it's peak at the beginning of my re-election time, my mother became very ill, my husband and I were battling many personal issues and our relationship was becoming destructive and finally we divorced. I lost most of what I had; our homes, our furniture and received no financial help or child support after fourteen years of marriage.

In that process, I learned that bad things can happen to good people and that life is not fair. My mother became bedridden, her husband died and I was left to care for her as a single mom with a job that required a great amount of my time and energy. I didn't think I would make it. How can life be so good; then go so bad? I'm not a bad person. I'm a Christian and a Conservative. Christian public officials are not supposed to divorce! I was furious with what had happened to me and what people had done to me.

What I had done to myself. But thank goodness, years before, I had started a deep search for God and I knew Him.

I knew that because I have faith the Bible is true and that God's promises are real. Then I could trust Him when I was not in control. I had to rest in the comfort of knowing that God would take care of all my needs and all that concerned me. He did!

Even though I lost most of my worldly possessions, God is faithful and restored me in ways I could never think or image. I bought a beautiful home, furniture and God provides for myself and my children. I learned "not to be anxious for tomorrow"- that God will provide all I need at the right time. I knew in my heart if I were to continue my close walk with God, that I could not let my heart grow bitter and hard by not forgiving those who had despitefully used me. How could I encourage my state if my spirit was weak. I purposed for God to heal my heart!

Lieutenant Governor Mary Fallin and her two children.

God is bigger than all the things that I might go through and He is able to handle all that concerns me. I still struggle today with being responsible for my bedridden mother and seeing her so ill. I have prayed so much for her healing and have learned to trust God with her illness that once again, it's not in my control. He has a perfect plan for her life.

I also had to let go and let God with my former husband. It was not my job to address the issues of his heart. My job is to forgive and love and address the issues of my heart.

I don't have to earn big awards or titles to be worthy in this life. The biggest race I will be in will be the race to see Jesus and when I reach the gates of heaven and to

Because He lives, all fear is gone, because I know He holds the future and life is worth the living just because He lives”.*

hear “Good job, good and faithful servant.” That’s the only race that matters.

God is faithful to give us calm in the midst of storms. There were so many times I did not feel like giving a positive, encouraging speech to my fellow Oklahomans when I didn’t feel good. But I serve a mighty God who allows me “to do all things through Christ Jesus who strengthens me.”

After my divorce, I figured my career, that I deeply love, was over. The divorce was very bitter and public while I tried to keep it private and calm. But I learned that when you are seeking God’s purpose and plan for your life, God will take you and keep you where He wants you -- even into my re-election in 2003. Once He closes a door it is shut, but He can open doors for opportunities if we are willing to trust Him.

Satan loves to attack the mind telling people, “You can’t do something,” “You can’t have happiness or a restored relationship.” He’s a liar. “All things are possible with God.” “Greater is He that is in us that he that is in the world.”

But most of all, I experienced the faithfulness and loving care of God when you have nowhere else to turn but to Him.

My life today is so blessed with two beautiful children, a purpose-driven life of God, filled with love for mankind and forgiveness.

I am a blessed woman.
Thank you God! ■

ETERNITY MATTERS

PETER EVANS,
AUSTRALIA

FOSTER PARENTS, A CATHOLIC COLLEGE UPBRINGING, SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS ON MY MOTHER'S SIDE, SHE AN ANGLICAN, MY FOSTER-DAD AN AGNOSTIC "BUSH BAPTIST" AND MY STEP-DAD AND HIS FAMILY WERE JEWS. MANY OF MY FRIENDS WERE ATHEISTS. FOR ME, THERE MAY HAVE BEEN A "SOMETHING" OR EVEN A "SOMEONE" BEHIND IT ALL, BUT IF GOD EXISTED HE WOULD BE SO PERFECT THAT HE WOULD DISPLAY NO EMOTION OR ANY KIND. HE WAS THEREFORE NON-RELATIONAL; AND THAT WAS ENOUGH FOR ME UNTIL 35 YEARS OF AGE.

But it wasn't enough to keep me out of trouble. The sports, rugby, boxing and judo; the adventure, mountain climbing, underwater shark hunting and jungle trekking; the fun, bike gangs, sports cars and girls; and a lot of wild living -- all they did was set me up for a big fall. I was ignoring the One who wanted something more from me. He got my attention.

When other young men were following a career path in their 20's I was considering enlisting in the Vietnam war, to end it all. I had lost all interest in life. Very unexpectedly the opportunity to care for my young son Mark gave me a reason to live but I found myself a very inefficient and unhappy single parent. I took my social life home in a bottle. There was no hope in sight. I shudder when I think of the bad example and influence I was.

Then along came a glimmer of hope. It was in the form of teaching on success through a positive mental attitude, mostly books by Christian authors. At a Salvation Army meeting around 7:30 pm on November 6, 1975, I found myself invisibly propelled to the altar rail, there to pray the sinner's prayer and unexpectedly sign a pledge to never drink again.

Over the next few days I went through the acute torment of withdrawal. I made a deep commitment to keep following Jesus, no matter what the cost. The next morning I awoke delivered totally from an almost 20-year addiction to both alcohol and nicotine.

It took three miraculous meetings with Ron Oastler, a director of the FGBMFI, to get me to seriously consider the baptism in the Holy Spirit. On April 2, I spoke in tongues.

Shortly afterwards, at an Easter

Salvation Army camp, I was given more demonstrations of His power. Walking across an oval I suddenly felt myself enveloped by a waterfall of liquid love. It cascaded over me and transfixed me to the spot. Later, a significant number of Salvationists dedicated and recommitted their lives. The Commissioner said it was mainly because of my impromptu testimony that night. Now I could see what that power was for.

I served the Fellowship as a Field Rep. and while returning from a Melbourne Full Gospel Businessmen's conference, I was "taken up." Niels Nielsen, president of the Sutherland chapter was driving the Volvo and while praising loudly in tongues I suddenly accelerated upwards to a heavenly place. I was given "on location" teachings with visual and sensory aids on many subjects and many Scriptures. This Heavenly experience was sufficient to give me convincing life-long insights for my later Christian service. Through supernatural circumstances, I was able to attend the 25th FGBMFI World Convention in Anaheim.

Peter Evans prays before he ministers to others.

After a few more striking “God-incidences” back home I was amazed to find myself working as Publicity Manager for the great “Jesus ‘79” conference in Sydney. I traveled Australia promoting it and saw much publicity for the Gospel come from the liaison work between speakers and media personnel. I saw many lives changed amongst the media personnel. I was awoken to the power of the secular media in publishing the Gospel.

As I was teaching on the charismatic movement, the voice of God spoke to me again. He said, “If there was one thing in the world that you knew you could have just by asking for it, what would it be?” Without any aforethought or hesitation (but with surprise at my own answer) I said, “I want to be a family man”.

Back home, I felt called to make a short trip to South East Asia and whilst in Osaka Japan, I had a very clear day vision with a very clear message that I managed to very clearly mess up. The message was “If you marry this one (pictured in the vision) you will have a very ordinary Christian life that will amount to very little. If you marry the one I have for you, then you will have a dynamic Christian life”.

I proceeded to try to do the exact opposite and to extricate me from my own folly, God granted me two dreams with unmistakable meanings. One gave the reason in parabolic format why that person was not God’s choice for me and the other one gave me the command in no uncertain terms, to “separate!”

The sequel to my eventual obedience was another God-incidence and I met once again a young lady after 3 months, at St John’s Darlinghurst. I sensed immediately this was the one God had been speaking of. In our first meeting alone we prayed extensively, and the voice of God said, “You know my Word that says, ‘if you believe on me you will be saved, and your house?’” When I answered “yes”, the Voice replied, “Well, if you don’t have a house, I’ll give you one!” I looked across at Jan and laughed and laughed. We were married on November 6, 1982.

*The happy Evans couple,
Peter and Janet.*

“SEEK FIRST THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS AND ALL THESE THINGS SHALL BE ADDED UNTO YOU.”

Two sons Jonathan and Samuel, were born in Adelaide and I did another six years of Bible and theology studies. The multi denominational education further equipped me for a later work God was preparing me for, amongst the various churches.

In 1997, my life was changed profoundly and dramatically. I waited on the Lord. A ‘vision’ developed to publish testimonies in secular media. It would be called “Eternity Matters”.

About May 2003 I received a prophecy that in three months I would be encountered by God. He might even appear to me. At the recent 50th FGBMFI Jubilee Convention in August 2003, I received my encounter on the opening night. The next day it was prophesied that my vision would now come to pass, the closed doors would now be opened, and people would be waiting to help when I returned.

They didn’t know that Eternity Matters had virtually stalled. Since I got back to Australia the work has indeed begun to take off.

From the uncertain start, and a later loss of all hope and purpose, my life trend was totally reversed. I have been enriched with the reality of God and especially His Scripture, “Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you.” ■

ME!

Larry Tanner
Reading, Pennsylvania

As a child I was abused, and then I became an abuser...

In 1976 at the age of 13, I was given to the State of Wisconsin. At 18 I was released by the state and began living on the streets and eating anywhere I could find food, even out of dumpsters. I didn't recognize it at the time, but God provided shelter – bridges, vacant cars, and buildings – and also my food. I didn't know it was God because I didn't think He would let people live like that.

I accepted Jesus as my Savior in 1981 in Colorado. For a couple of months I tried to change the world, but when I found out I couldn't do it, I gave up and returned to the life I knew.

In 1989 God introduced me to Alcoholics Anonymous, and on March 19, 1995, in front of over 200 people in Maryland, my Mom presented me with a six-year medallion for sobriety. Talk about God working a miracle! My Mom had disowned me in 1976 and there she was telling me that she was proud of me. While passing through New York as a truck driver in 1995, God introduced me to my incredible wife, Jill.

I fell asleep behind the wheel of my semi on October 6, 1995, and ran into the back of a car. I killed a young man and injured two of his friends. Every night for about the next two weeks I prayed to God to take my life. When I woke the next morning I swore at Him for letting me live. Eventually I heard that God does not bring you that far and then leave you alone.

GOD NEVER LEFT ME!

My one-week trial started on May 5, 1997. I was convicted of vehicular homicide plus two counts of vehicular assault. Jill and I were married June 14, 1997, and I began my six-year prison sentence a little over a month later.

God had already forgiven me, but not until that September could I forgive myself for causing the accident. I now believe it was because I forgave myself that I received a letter stating I was getting early release. While in prison I spoke in front of 300 inmates at their A.A. meeting.

God's best miracle took place December 3, 1997, when my daughter, Irene, was born. The doctor allowed me to put my hand on his and assist in the first stage of her delivery. Then the doctor took his hands away and I brought Irene into this world.

In spite of all God had done for me, I still had problems and by the end of 2001 I had left my family twice and had contacted a lawyer about divorce.

However, God brought me to reality in early 2002. I asked Jill for forgiveness and if she would accept me back into her life, which she did. I soon rededicated my life to Jesus.

Jill and I have strengthened our marriage. We renewed our marriage vows on September 22, 2002.

My family and I are growing closer to God and each other every day! Since being back with God and my family, I have an inner peace that I never felt before in my life! I finally found someone to tell me I'm okay – God, myself, my family and my church family.

God really never left me!

Men still cry, "What must I do to be saved?" The Bible provides a clear answer.

6 Steps to Salvation

1. ACKNOWLEDGE

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." – Romans 3:23

"God be merciful to me a sinner." – Luke 18:13

2. REPENT

"Except ye repent, you shall all likewise perish." – Luke 13:3

"Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out." – Acts 3:19

3. CONFESS

"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." – 1 John 1:9

"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved." – Romans 10:9

4. FORSAKE

"Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD...for He will abundantly pardon." – Isaiah 55:7

5. BELIEVE

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." – John 3:16

"He that believes and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believes not shall be damned." – Mark 16:16

6. RECEIVE

"He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." – John 1:11-12

WHY NOT MAKE YOUR ETERNAL DECISION NOW?

"Lord Jesus, I believe You died for my sins and I ask for Your forgiveness. I receive You now as my personal Savior and invite You to manage my life from this day forward. Amen."

Write us to tell of your decision. We'll send you a booklet, "Now That You've Received Christ."

YOUR 3-STEP DIAGNOSIS FOR ETERNITY

(Check appropriate boxes)

STEP 1:

When I breathe my last, the next thing is:

- go to hell
- go to heaven.
- stay buried in the grave
- I have no idea.

STEP 2:

Here is what will probably happen:

- I'll spend eternity in hell.
- I'll spend eternity with Jesus in heaven.
- I'll be reincarnated as a "higher being"
- My relatives can visit my grave; I'll be there.
- I don't really know what will happen.

STEP 3: I'm sure because:

- I've led a sinful life
- I've trusted Jesus as my personal Savior
- I've gone to church all my life
- I support charities, even church
- I'm a good person.

TRES PASOS PARA DIAGNOSTICAR SU ETERNIDAD

(Marque el espacio apropiado)

1er PASO:

Cuando yo de mi ultimo aliento, lo que me acontecerá proxicamente es:

- ire al infierno
- ire al cielo
- seguire enterrado en la tumba
- no tengo idea.

2do PASO:

Esto es lo que probablemente sucedera:

- pasare la eternidad en el infierno.
- pasare la eternidad con Jesus en el cielo.
- me re-encarnare como un ser "mas elevado".
- mis parientes podran visitarme en mi tumba; ahi estare.
- no se exactamente que sucedera.

3er PASO:

Estoy seguro porque:

- lleve una vida pecaminosa
- yo he confiado en Jesus como mi salvador personal
- he asistido a la iglesia toda mi vida
- apoye a caridades y a la iglesia
- yo ayude a mi comunidad
- soy una buena persona
